Hannukah – Festival of Lights

Hannukah is the Hebrew word for “dedication” and is celebrated by Jewish people around the world for seven days and seven nights.

Christmas in Israel:

Although the Christmas story took place in Israel, Christmas is not widely celebrated in the country at all and Christmas Day is a normal working day unless it falls at the weekend.

Nazareth is one place that there will be Christmas lights on the streets and outdoor markets to celebrate both Christmas and Hannukah. There is also a Christmas Eve parade, followed by a firework display and a midnight Mass Service.

The parade represents the journey that Mary and Joseph took in the Christmas Story when they travelled from Nazareth to Bethlehem. All faiths join together at this parade.

In Hebrew Happy or Merry Christmas is “Chag Molad Sameach” which means “Happy festival of the birth”.

In Aramaic, it’s “Eedookh Breekha” which means “Blessed be your Christmas”

Festive foods include roast mutton and other whole meats.

Online Access: Supervise young people when they’re online and give them advice about staying safe.
